

A Trail for every type of ## adventure and ability!

Fairfield Bay has miles of trails to explore, with many different types and options. Before you begin your trek, here are some things to know in case of an emergency:

- ✔ Activate your location services. Know your GPS location and what trail you're on
- ✔ Texts go through quicker than a phone call when calling 911 with limited service
- ✔ Drop a pin for 911 emergencies, then stay there

Historic Island Trail

1 Sugar Loaf Mountain Trail

Starting off with a shuttle from Fairfield Bay Marina, there's nothing quite like the total experience you take in when climbing Sugar Loaf Mountain – Arkansas' Only Mountain Island Trail.

Mule Trail

1/2 MILE
DIFFICULT
HIKING ONLY

The Mule Trail has very steep steps, high bluffs, and difficult walking conditions, but you'll be rewarded for your effort with spectacular panoramic views of Greers Ferry Lake.

Terrace Trail

1-6/10 MILES
MODERATE

From the base of the shore and climbs up to the bluff line and goes around the island, 1.6 miles round trip.

Trails Around The City

2 Indian Rock Cave Trail

3/4 MILE
MODERATE
TRAILHEAD: Old Log Cabin/
Indian Hills Golf Course.

This path leads to Indian Rock House, the largest bluff shelter in Arkansas. (look for the petroglyphs.) The path continues along the Indian Hills Golf Course, rising and returning along beautiful bluffs and boulders.

3 Rambling Cove Trail

1/2 MILE
MODERATE
TRAILHEAD: Entrance to Fairfield Bay Marina/-
Campground

Starting at the big Razorback shaped rock, this trail is fairly flat then slopes down to the shores of beautiful Greers Ferry lake. A scenic woodland trail with a small cove. Paved trail with ActionFit Exercise Equipment and Fairy Gardens along the way.

4 Indian Falls Trail

8/10 MILE
MODERATE
TRAILHEAD: West Cliff Spur

This beautiful trail runs along the rim of Wild Horse Canyon. The rock formations and two waterfalls make this a serenely peaceful hike.

5 Woodland Mead Park Trail

1/4 MILE
EASY
TRAILHEAD: Woodland Mead Park

Starting at the amphitheater sidewalk in Woodland Mead Park, this beautiful trail meanders through the woods, traversing natural rock formations, soft pines and ferns to connect with the gardens of Ed Leamon Park.

6 Ed Leamon Garden Trail

3/10 MILE
TRAILHEAD: Ed Leamon Park Entrance
A gardener's delight, this little oasis is home to rose gardens, butterfly gardens and elusive fairy gardens! Developed by Van Buren Master Gardeners, wander or sit under the shade trees.

7 Lost Creek Trail

1-8/10 MILE
MODERATE
TRAILHEAD: Lost Creek Parkway
Discover nature and a little history as you walk along the creek, traverse rocks, boulders and small caves. Find the historic Thong Tree near half way.

Hiking & Biking Trails

8 Lakewood Trail

5 MILES
CHALLENGING
TRAILHEAD: Across from United Methodist Church on Dave Creek Parkway
Beautiful scenery, wildlife and 800' of elevation change make this an exciting and challenging trail.

To get to the waterfalls from the Lakewood trail head, turn right onto Dave Creek Parkway and then make an immediate right onto West Cliff. Go down the mountain and turn right just before the gates onto West Cliff Spur. The trailhead is on the right.

9 Mountain Ranch Trail

5 MILES
CHALLENGING
TRAILHEAD: Mountain Ranch subdivision, off Maddox Drive on Alpine

Great for beginner and novice alike, this trail is perfect for hikers and mountain bikers looking for a trail offering simplicity and beauty alike. This trail is fairly level, but offers a few creek crossings (two are quite wide) and a variety of beautiful and substantial rock, gorges and boulder formations. Fun for the entire family.

10 Chris Matthews Memorial Trail

1/4 MILE
MODERATE
TRAILHEAD: along the Chamber Trail
Dirt path loop off of the Chamber Trail.

UTV Trails

With over 90 miles of trails, we are the ultimate destination for your ATV weekend.

- ✔ Know your GPS location in case of an emergency
- ✔ Have a valid driver's license to operate UTV

Orange Trail

CHALLENGING

The trail takes you from East Cliff Drive and Net lane through the picturesque hills of Fairfield Bay near the beautiful Greers Ferry Lake, then back to the starting point.

Blue Trail

EASY

This is an easy tour that allows you to enjoy the scenery as you travel the woods near the Chelsea Condos and Lynn Creek.

Yellow Trail

MODERATE

The trail meanders through the woods of Northwood Hills near the rain entrance. This is a moderate level tour with streams, water and mud obstacles.

Green Trail

CHALLENGING

The Green Trail is a challenging tour that winds through the beautiful backwoods of Mountain Ranch.
